

I urge you to leave in place the rules that control and limit the number of media outlets that one company or party can own. This is essential if we are to maintain a variety of media in the public interest - rather than the interests of a few major conglomerates. Thank you, hopefully, for your consideration.